

Coast Guard Vessel Versus Wave!

Large storm swells reached Morro Bay California on December 4, 2007, bringing 15-20 foot swells. A U.S. Coast Guard 47-foot Motor Life Boat was out for practice maneuvers when hit by the large wave caught in the following photographs.

